

Plants in My Life- Ethnobotany

You are invited to watch the videos on the map of Camp Latgawa where our instructors describe their connections to plants in their lives.

How do you use plants in your life? Are there plants that you really like or need? What story could you tell about you and that plant? Write or sketch and label about the plants in your life here: